The University of Miami Ethics Programs foster and support a range of efforts dedicated to education, research, and community service in ethics and the professions. We do this by developing and supporting a variety of courses, conferences, research projects, seminars, and other activities around the University of Miami and with regional, national and global partners.

Many of these activities are made possible by a gift from philanthropist and UM Trustee Adrienne Arsht.

---

Dialogues in Research Ethics

Research, from the Laboratory to the Community or Vice-Versa?

Friday, January 9, 2015
12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. (A Light Lunch will be Provided)
RMSB, 4th Floor Auditorium
Medical Campus

Human subject research is purportedly conducted to improve the human condition and, in most instances, it does. However, there have been repeated instances, throughout history in various parts of the world, where bioethics violations have occurred. Most often, the violations have disproportionally and adversely affected vulnerable populations to include, but not limited to: people of color, low-income populations, women, children, and persons living with physical or mental disabilities or illnesses, or who are institutionalized or incarcerated.

Learn More

Dialogues in Research Ethics is a series of monthly conferences.

For more information, phone UM Ethics Programs at 305-243-5723 or e-mail ethics@miami.edu
Ethics & the Medical Humanities
"Medicine's Michelangelo"
The Life & Art of Frank H. Netter, MD
Presented by his daughter, Francine Mary Netter

Tuesday, January 20, 2015
12:00 p.m. (A light lunch will be Provided)
History of Medicine Room, Louis Calder Library
Medical Campus

In this special presentation, Ms. Netter will describe her book, which seeks to capture the character of one of the greatest illustrators in the history of medicine. The book tells his life story using her memories as well as Dr. Netter's autobiographical notes, personal correspondence, private files, publications, public archives, and more than 100 interviews with family members, artists, distinguished practitioners and scientists.

Learn More

For more Information, phone UM Ethics Programs at 305-243-5723 or email us at ethics@miami.edu

Arsht Ethics Initiatives
Human Trafficking:
The Emerging Epidemic

Friday, January 23, 2015
8:00 AM - 5:00 PM
University of Miami Student Center Complex-Ballroom
1330 Miller Drive
Coral Gables

One third of trafficking survivors had been seen by a health professional during their captivity without being identified. This multidisciplinary conference, sponsored by an Arsht Research on Ethics and Community Grant, will address and train health professionals, first respondents and law enforcement agents on issues related to human trafficking.

Learn More

To register and for more information about the conference, contact Juhi Jain at endingslavery2015@gmail.com

FBN Conference
Strategies for Resolving the Ethical and Legal Complexities of End-of-Life Healthcare Decisions
Friday, January 30, 2015
7:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.
Hyatt Regency Orlando International Airport Hotel
Orlando, Florida

The Miller School-based Florida Bioethics Network (FBN) will host a major conference in Orlando on January 30, 2015. “Strategies for Resolving Ethical and Legal Complexities of End-of-Life Healthcare Decisions” will feature leading speakers from Florida and around the nation. The conference is designed for healthcare professionals in hospitals, hospices, and nursing homes. With coordination by the University of Florida and University of Miami medical school bioethics programs, this is a must-attend event for ethics committee members.

Learn More

For more information, phone UM Ethics Programs at 305-243-5723 or email us at ethics@miami.edu