

SEMINARS IN THE

MEDICAL HUMANITIES

To Slay the Dragon

Readings by a practicing physician and neurologist from his poetry, including unpublished work and poems published in medical journals, anthologies and two books of collected poetry.

Jay A. Liveson, M.D.

*Clinical Associate Professor of Neurology
New York University School of Medicine*

Noon, Friday, January 24, 1997

VA Research and Education Building Conference Room 207

Lunch will be served

Seminars in the History of Medicine is an occasional series sponsored by the University of Miami and the Veterans Affairs Medical Center through the Forum for Bioethics and Philosophy

