

SEMINARS IN THE

MEDICAL HUMANITIES

The Physician as Social Critic: George Rosen, History, and Health Policy

Edward T. Morman, MSLS, Ph.D.

*Institute for the History of Medicine
The Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine*

Noon, Monday, January 6, 1997
Calder Medical Library, History of Medicine Room

Seminars in the History of Medicine is an occasional series sponsored by the University of Miami and the Veterans Affairs Medical Center through the Forum for Bioethics and Philosophy

