

SEMINARS IN THE MEDICAL HUMANITIES

Healers and Metaphors

Readings by a practicing physician and neurologist from his own poetry, as well as that of others, relating to the experiences of physicians and patients — and thus, ultimately, of almost all of us.

Jay A. Liveson, M.D.

EMG Coordinator

Department of Rehabilitation

Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center

Brooklyn, New York

Noon, Friday, December 19, 1997
VA Nursing Service Classroom 2E-118
Lunch will be served

Seminars in the Medical Humanities is an occasional series sponsored by the University of Miami and the Veterans Affairs Medical Center through the UM Forum for Bioethics and Philosophy

