

Ethics and Decision Making: Doing Right, Recognizing Wrong

UNIVERSITY
OF MIAMI
ETHICS PROGRAMS

May 6, 2014

Arsht
Ethics Initiatives

Newman Alumni Center - 6200 San Amaro Drive
University of Miami Coral Gables Campus - 8:30am-11:30am

Featured Speakers:

Anita Cava

Anita Cava is Professor of Business Law, Director of the Business Ethics Program and Co-Director of UM Ethics Programs. In addition to critical thinking and decision-making, her areas of interest are corporate compliance and corruption as well as health care law and ethics.

Talking points:

- What are "ethical blind spots" and when do they appear?
- How do they affect our critical thinking?
- What can we do to shine a bright light on them?

Robert Meyers

Robert Meyers is "Of Counsel" with the law firm of Weiss Serota Helfman Pastoriza Cole & Boniske, specializing in ethics and governmental law. Mr. Meyers also serves as the Executive Director of the St. Thomas University Center for Ethics. Prior to his current affiliations, he was the Executive Director of the Miami-Dade Commission on Ethics and Public Trust for more than 13 years.

Talking points:

- Promoting and maintaining an ethical environment within organizations
- Integrity-based versus compliance-based programs
- Allocating resources to confront ethical misconduct in the workplace

Registration fee: $25.00 per workshop (scholarships available)

Credit Cards / Checks are accepted at the door (Checks payable to: University of Miami)

For scholarship information, please contact Kristine Singer at: KristineS@CatalystMiami.org, 786.414.1303

Registration Link: <https://ltnn-miami2014-5.eventbrite.com>