

Join us at the University of Miami Coral Gables Campus on Monday October 24, 2011 to celebrate Food Day!

Food Day is a National Grassroots Campaign to:

- Reduce diet-related disease by promoting healthy foods
- Support sustainable farms & cut subsidies to agribusiness
- Expand access to food and end hunger
- Protect the environment & animals by reforming factory farms
- Promote health by curbing junk-food marketing to kids
- Obtain fair pay and safe conditions for food and farm workers

Presented by the Office of Civic and Community Engagement For more information, visit us online at www.miami.edu/civic or email us at civicengagement@miami.edu

These events are free and open to the public

EVENTS INCLUDE:

9AM-3PM Foote University Green
The UM Farmer's Market

10AM-Noon UC Lower Lounge
Community Food Organization Fair

5PM-6:30PM CAS Gallery
Panel with local experts on food issues

7PM-10PM CAS Gallery
Film Screenings of food justice movies

