

2014 Miami Kant Workshop

All sessions will be held in University Center 211 (correction from earlier).

Participants are expected to read the paper before the session; all papers can be downloaded from:

<https://www.dropbox.com/sh/8btng4p15dx9hmv/9Ta97UsU8A>

Friday, April 4

- | | |
|---------------------|---|
| 10 - 11 am | Uygar Abaci (UBC)
“Kant’s Enigmatic Transition: Practical Cognition of the Supersensible” |
| 11:15 am - 12:15 pm | Karl Schafer (Pittsburgh)
“Practical Cognition and Knowledge of Things in Themselves” |
| 12:15 - 1:30 | Lunch (catered) |
| 1:30-2:30 pm | Timothy Rosenkoetter (Dartmouth)
“The Doubling of the Universalization Formula and Kant’s Insight Regarding Moral Objectivity” |
| 3-4 pm | Colin Marshall (UW-Seattle)
“Kant’s Derivation of the moral ‘ought’ from the metaphysical ‘is’” |
| 4:30-5:30 pm | Lucy Allais (Witwatersrand)
“Kant’s Account of Free Will” |
| 5:30 pm | Reception (Philosophy Department conference room, Ashe 7 th floor) |
| 8 pm | Dinner (Tap Tap Haitian Restaurant, 819 5 th St., Miami Beach) |

Saturday, April 5

- 10 - 11 am Jessica Leech (Sheffield)
“A Transcendental Argument for the Principle of Possibility”
- 11:15 am - 12:15 pm Tobias Rosefeldt (Humboldt)
“Transcendental Idealism and the Content of Experience”
- 12:15 - 1:30 Lunch (catered)
- 1:30-2:30 pm Dina Emundts (Konstanz)
“Kants Theorie der reinen Apperzeption”
- 3-4 pm Stefanie Grüne (Potsdam)
“Sensible Synthesis and the Intuition of Space”
- 4:30-5:30 pm Clinton Tolley (UCSD)
“Kant’s Distinction between Perception and Experience”
- ~~5:30 pm Reception~~ [canceled]
- 8pm Dinner (Books n’ Books Café, 927 Lincoln Rd., Miami Beach)

Acknowledgments

This conference has been made possible through generous support from the following offices and entities at the University of Miami:

- The Department of Philosophy
- The Ethics Program
- The Office of the Provost
- The College of Arts & Sciences
- The Graduate School