

U. S. Educational Policy: Are We on the Right Track?

Date: Monday
March 7, 2011

Nel Noddings

Time: 4:30 pm
Room 106 School of Nursing

Come join us as Nel Noddings, Professor of Philosophy and the Lee L. Jacks Professor of Child Education Emerita at Stanford University addresses current issues involving contemporary educational policy and the implications of the No Child Left Behind law followed by comments from President Donna Shalala.

sponsored by the Department of Philosophy, the University of Miami Ethics Programs and the Center for Applied Ethics Initiatives, the Dunspaugh-Alton Community and Educational Well-Being Research Center at the School of Education, and the Civic and Community Engagement Project.

Sp
th th
Da
Re ar
Pr