

UM Ethics Programs Present

ETHICS

Policy and Society

'Sustaining Social Enterprises'

Jack Sim

Social Entrepreneur

5:30 p.m., Wednesday, November 20, 2013
Storer Auditorium, UM School of Business Administration

Jack Sim has received the Swiss Schwab Foundation award for Social Entrepreneur of the Year, been named a Hero of the Environment by Time magazine and elected a Fellow of Ashoka: Innovators for the Public – all in part for his work to overcome taboo and raise awareness of the role of sanitation systems in environmental waste. Founder of the Singapore-based World Toilet Organization, which has organized ten World Toilet Summits, Mr. Sim arrives in South Florida after helping the United Nations mark “World Toilet Day.”

“Ethics, Policy and Society” is an occasional series sponsored by UM Ethics Programs. For more information:
ethics@miami.edu, 305-243-5723
<http://www.miami.edu/ethics>