

CONFIDENTIALITY

And the Professions

A university-wide seminar series featuring
Ronald Goldfarb, J.D., Distinguished Visiting Scholar

Ronald Goldfarb is a Washington, D.C., attorney, author and literary agent. He served in the 1960's as a member of Attorney General Robert F. Kennedy's Organized Crime and Racketeering Section of the Department of Justice and has written several important books on law and public policy. He is working on a book about privacy and confidentiality in the professions for Yale University Press.

Gables Campus

Philosophy Department
Conference Room
7th Floor Ashe

February 9, 2006
February 23
March 9
March 23

Medical Campus

Mailman Center
Room 5003

February 16
March 2
March 16
March 30

All Thursdays at 3 p.m.

This series will address issues in law, medicine, pastoral care, journalism, information technology and other professions. It is open to the university community, as well as the public. Those who attend at least four sessions will receive a University of Miami Ethics Programs Certificate of Attendance.

For more information, contact
UM Ethics Programs:
305-243-5723
ethics@miami.edu
<http://www.ethics.miami.edu>