

Clinical Ethics Service Opportunity for Medical Students

Clinical Ethics Service Opportunity for Medical Students

Interested in Clinical Ethics? Apply to Join the IBHP Clinical Ethics Service Program!

MSOM students to apply for a unique, structured one-year opportunity to gain hands-on exposure to clinical ethics in practice through participation in one of three ethics committees: the UHealth Clinical Ethics Committee, Jackson Health System Adult Bioethics Committee, or Jackson Health System Pediatric Bioethics Committee.

Participants will engage in committee meetings, case discussions, educational activities, mentorship from ethics faculty, and may have opportunities for supervised involvement in clinical ethics consultations as they progress through the program. No prior coursework or experience in bioethics is required.

 Application Deadline: October 7, 2026

 Submit: Cover Letter and CV

 Send to: risasi@miami.edu

 Questions? Contact: risasi@miami.edu

In your cover letter, please indicate if you have a particular interest in one of the three committees.