

ZIKA 2017: WHERE DO WE GO NEXT?

An Interactive Forum on Public Deliberation and Ethics for Better Policymaking

Thursday, April 6

TIME: 8:30 AM - 4 PM

PLACE: Braman Miller Center (Hillel)
University of Miami

COST: Free, RSVP Required
Breakfast & lunch for registered attendees

Join UM's Institute for Bioethics and Health Policy and the Miami CTSI for an interactive forum on the next phase of Zika policy, focused on the role of ethics and public deliberation to promote better public health decision making. The forum will combine expert-led presentations on ethics, science, public health and politics of Zika with interactive sessions about how deliberation could inform the Zika response.

Register by March 31 at www.miamictsi.org/zika-forum

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI
MILLER SCHOOL OF MEDICINE
INSTITUTE FOR BIOETHICS

UNIVERSITY OF MIAMI
CLINICAL & TRANSLATIONAL
SCIENCE INSTITUTE

